

Environmental Finance Information Network

www.epa.gov/efinpage/efin.htm

The Environmental Finance Center Network

Working on the "How to Pay" Issues of Environmental Compliance

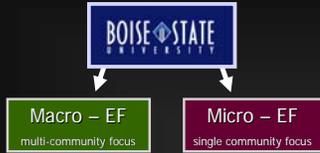

The University-based Environmental Finance Center Network Provides Third-Party Assistance to Communities and Groups on Financing Environmental Compliance

<http://efc.boisestate.edu/efc/Publications/tabid/59/Default.aspx>

The 2005-06 Annual Report provides detail on the activities of the individual Environmental Finance Centers. Our performance demonstrates the capacities of the Centers to assist stakeholders on existing and emerging environmental compliance challenges.

The Center Provides Services to Communities on the "How to Pay" Issues of Environmental Compliance

- Watershed restoration finance
- Non-point source pollution costs
- Watershed financing database
- Lower Boise River pollution trading project technical assistance
- Community charrettes
- Strategic planning tools for local decision-makers
- Financial analysis
- Water system finance & management
- Wastewater finance & management
- Asset management and "gap" financing
- Guidebook of Financing Tools
- Brownfield redevelopment financing
- Financial & management capacity measurement & technical assistance
- Utility rate setting tools & training

BSU's EFC Creates Tangible Software Tools
Designed to Save Communities Time and Money

Download these tools at <http://efc.boisestate.edu>

The Directory is a searchable database that provides detailed information on over 1000 funding programs.

Plan2Fund OPT is a tool for prioritizing objectives in a strategic planning process (work plans, etc.)

<http://efc.boisestate.edu>

Financial Analysis Tool (FACE)

