

2007 Environmental Justice and Air Pollution Workshop
Richard Lew's Bio

Richard Lew, Community Outreach Manager, Bay Area Air Quality Management District
– Mr. Lew has been with the Air District for more than 20 years and has a vast knowledge and understanding for the Air District's Compliance and Enforcement Division as well as outreach and community relations. He currently serves as the Community Outreach Manager and oversees the community grant program administered by the Air District. Mr. Lew also attends community meetings related in and around impacted communities, manages the Air District's local resource teams, and conducts community outreach for the Air District's grants program.