

Sheila Lewis

Office of Environmental Justice (OEJ)

Sheila has been with EPA since 1985 and joined the Office of Environmental Justice in 2001.

Her background is Accounting/Business Management, with expertise in auditing, government contracts and grants.

Her current role in OEJ is Grants Team Leader, which currently includes the Collaborative Problem Solving Cooperative Agreement Program and Environmental Justice Small Grant Program.

She has been working with grants and community organizations for more than 10 years.