

Zoë Heller
EPA Region 9

Zoë Heller is an Environmental Protection Specialist for the Environmental Justice Program at the US Environmental Protection Agency, Region 9, Pacific Southwest office. She has been with USEPA for one year.

Prior to working for USEPA, Zoë worked for the nonprofit, the Center for Neighborhood Technology in Chicago as a Research and Policy Analyst with the transportation team. She received her Masters of Public Administration and certification in GIS from Roosevelt University in Chicago, IL and received her B.A. in Environmental Policy from Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, FL.